THE CASTELLAN

1952

ST. MARY'S SEMINARY JUNIOR COLLEGE

. . . presents its annual publication, THE CASTELLAN, as proof that a Sem Fem's day is a busy one.

We Point With Pride

To Miss Betty Carol Clutts, with gratitude and esteem, the CASTELLAN staff of 1951-52 dedicates this issue.

As head of the Social Science department, she has been helpful, sympathetic, and a constant inspiration to all her students through her example. She does not need to wear her Phi Beta Kappa key to impress us of her well-informed and interesting mind. She has given valuable time in special classes for those who need additional help.

Miss Clutts has not only helped students in scholarship; she has been senior class sponsor and has organized the Current Events Discussion Group, and has made it an important and worthwhile campus organization.

At all times Miss Clutts upholds the aims and traditions of St. Mary's and has proved herself to be a fine teacher, understanding counselor, and a true friend to all her students. We are proud to acknowledge our appreciation here.

As senior class advisor, Miss Clutts could be found in the midst of student activity.

THEY KEEP THE WHEELS GRINDING SMOOTHLY

Above: It's conference time again for Miss Russell, Miss Verra, and Miss Rotha.

Right: The candid camera turns up when you least suspect.

Left: Miss Chance and Miss Sandner are plotting to order egg plant!!!

Below left: Could it be that Miss Custis and Miss Clutts are plotting the rise of the South? That gleam in Miss Clutts' eye means she's up to something!

Below right: After a busy day of classes, Miss Morton, Miss Stickney, Miss Harms, and Miss McDougall find time for relaxation. Bottom: It looks as if Miss Smith, Miss Richelderfer, Miss Mechling, and Miss Bogan are at it again! There must be a prank brewing here.

GEORGIA BENNETT, Class President
Brunswick, Md.

George

"He profits most who serves best."

Choir 2,3, president 4; Samadra 2,3,4; Class treasurer 2; Student Council 3,4; S.G.A. treasurer 3; A.A. treasurer; Fall Play 2,3,4; Signal News 4; Castellan editor 3; Orientation 3, 4.

As treasurer of 'most anything you can mention, George has had a busy three years at the Seminary. She has had her finger in just about every thing that's happened at S.M.S.

Seniors

MARGARET DINKLE, Vice President
Baltimore, Md.

Peg

"Everything will perish save love and music."

Castellan business manager 3; F.T.A. 3, president 4; Art Club 4; Home Ec Club 3,4; Samadra 4; Class secretary 3; Student Council 3; A.A. 4.

Peg's our camp gal, as well as the editor of the Castellan. She would rather attend a big cook-out in a desolate woods than go to a ball.

MARGARET BELL, Secretary
Cumberland, Md.

Peggy

"A woman's guess is much more accurate than a man's certainty."

Current Events Club secretary 3,4; Choir 3, secretary 4; Home Ec Club 3, president 4; F.T.A. 4; Library Assistant 3,4; Samadra 3,4.

Without Peg, the second floor girls would never get up in the morning. She's also our nurse, comforter, and pal. There are more bells in her future - wedding bells!

NANCY BUTTS, Treasurer
Berlin, Pa.

Nan

"I ask to know."

Samadra 3; Home Ec Club 3,4; Student Council 3, president 4; Castellan 3; A.A. Board 4; Orientation 4; May Court 4; Fall play 4.

After two years at St. Mary's, we may have convinced Nan that Pennsylvania isn't the only state in the Union! She has certainly convinced us that it produces some of the best people in the Union!

MARY ANN BLAKE
Havre de Grace, Md.

Plookie

"Full of sweet indifference."

Samadra 3,4; Student Council 3,4; Class treasurer 3; Castellan 3,4; A.A. Board 3, vice president 4; Choir 3,4; Signal News 3, editor 4; F.T.A. secretary 3, vice president 4; Current Events Club 3, president 4; Varsity basketball 3; Varsity hockey 4; May Court 4; Fall play 4.

Plookie is our Romanticist; freedom of thought and action are, according to her (as well as Somerset Maugham), two good things in life. In her two years here, she has displayed fine judgement and plain ole American "good sense."

KATHERINE HOEN
Baltimore, Md.

Kitty

"Though I am always in haste, I am never in a hurry."

Varsity hockey 3,4; Choir 3; Samadra 3,4; Athletic Association 3,4; Current Events Club 4.

Always living up to her name, "Witty Kitty" can bring a smile to everyone. She has a cheerful, witty, and unusually original saying for each person and each day. Kitty was one of our best wings on varsity hockey.

JOANNE LAWRENCE
Hollywood, Md.

Jo

"The music's not immortal, but the world has made it sweet."

Choir 3,4; May Court 4.

Here is the song bird of our class. She's toured with the Hollywood (Maryland, that is) Methodist Church Choir as far west as Texas and has made TV and radio appearances.

She drives to school everyday from Hollywood where she is at work already in her career as a secretary.

ANNE TILGHMAN
Crisfield, Md.

Tillie

"I came; I saw; I conquered."

Castellan 3, Business Manager 4; Student Council 2; A.A. Board 3, president 4; Court 4; Class president 3; Varsity Basketball and hockey 4; Orientation 3,4.

Tillie is one of the "old" girls who knows her way around St. Mary's, as can be seen by the responsible positions she has so ably filled. She has displayed her talent in modern dance by being choreographer for May Day..

Senior Will

We, the Senior Class of '52, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave this, our last will and testament.

I, Peggy Bell, will my saion sandwiches to my little sis's, Ginny Davis and Sandy Dehewin.

I, Georgia Bennett, will my red cardboard chest to my little sis, Betty Pass, and my love for Western Maryland to my other little sis, Sally Mayer.

I, Mary Ann Blake, will to my little sis, Lee Breckenridge, my (traditional) arm chair and bread box.

I, Nancy Butts, will to my little sis, Flo Atkinson, my stars on the maillet.

I, Peggy Dinkle, will my place in the mail line to anyone who can keep up the correspondence.

I, Kitty Hoen, will my wit to my little sis, Elaine Petalio.

I, Joanne Lawrence, will my vocal chords to the girls who sing in the shower.

I, Anne Tilghman, will to my little sis Patty Fisher, my love for biology and my directing kit.

Lucy, you don't mean it's been ten years since we went down to that school, what's the name? --- Oh, yes, St. Mary's. I remember how your little Lucy fell off the stage in the Music Hall when she got her diploma. Poor girl, it was such a shock to her. My! My!

Who did you say that was over there? Oh yes, Peggy Bell. Isn't it ridiculous how that elephant follows her around? My goodness, I'm only glad I don't live in that neighborhood. I don't care if she is a lover of animals, there's no reason for her to have all those creatures lolling about. It's so bad I hear her husband hides her elephant bell in the morning.

Lucy! Lucy! Do you see what I see? Goodness, I knew I shouldn't have had that last Sahara Desert with ginger ale; sometimes they effect my sight so. You do see it? Oh, thank heaven! When did they start having Indians here? Oh, you say that's Peg Dinkle. Doesn't she play the tom-tom well? That's the first time I've ever seen a papoose ride side saddle. Yes, I heard that she started a new Indian Reservation right outside of Baltimore.

Quick, Lucy, look! There's the famous comedienne, Kitty Hoen. I was so disappointed that I missed her TV show last Wednesday night. Of course, you've seen it -- the "Witty Kitty Show." Look who're with her wrapped up in all those furs! -- Mary Ann Blake and Georgia Bennett. You always do see those theatrical people flocking together. Now, Lucy, look! Those two men aren't their husbands. I know because I've seen their pictures in MOVIE NEWS. I wish we could get away with things like that. Do you suppose their husbands know? I'm anxious for Georgia and Mary Ann to open their new summer theatre. Knowing them, you can bet your lucky stars that it'll be the most unconventional thing that ever hit this county.

I was told that Joanne Lawrence and Anne Tilghman were to be entertainers here today. Isn't it nice of them to do that? Joanne is Fulton Lewis's secretary, you know. She appears on TV with him and everything. Once in a while she stops in here, and they won't let her leave until she sings. I can't see why she doesn't accept that offer from Margaret Truman and tour with her as a team. Anne Tilghman isn't a professional dancer either; she just does them a favor here. Yes, I agree with you, Lucy, they do have a lot of talent. But as I was saying, Anne has that Charm School down on 5th Avenue. Just between you and me, do you think I'm too old to enroll?

Isn't that sweet of Nancy Butts to bring her class of children down here to meet her classmates and let them see how fine a success they have made of their lives? I should say she has, too. Imagine being the principal of three schools at once! There must be no limit to her intelligence -- and nerves.

You know, I never realized that this place was operated by the graduates of 1952. It does hold them together, doesn't it? No matter what path they chose to take, they always manage to meet here every so often. It may not be the quietest place in town, but you can mark my word that it's the best place for gossip!

Where did you say Little Lucy was? Oh yes, I see her. My, you must be proud that these personalities were her classmates. You know, Lucy, she looks pretty up there hanging from the ceiling -- the bird in a gilded cage! She blends in with the decorations perfectly.

CAROL RIDGEWAY, Class President
Winchester, Va.

Ridge

"Great wits jump."

Choir 1; French Club 1,2; Samadra 1; Home Ec Club 1,2; Cheerleader 2; Castellan 2; Orientation 2.

Big brown eyes and that ever loving Southern accent characterize Carol. In her spare moments Ridge could be found holding the fort in the Smoker writing letters or playing cards.

Sophomores

JO-ANNE SMITH, Vice President
Grasonville, Md.

Jo

"Women can do everything, because they rule those who command everything."

Choir 2; Home Ec Club; Samadra 1; A.A. Board 2; Castellan 2; Student Council 2.

Jo is an Easternshoreman through and through. Her brown hair, big brown eyes, along with her super personality, all add up to some swell gal.

RUTH BUTCHER

"Butch" Secretary
Silver Springs, Md.

"If thy wits run the wild goose chase, I have done."

A.A. Board 2; Cheerleader 2; J.V. softball 1.

Beautiful red hair, blue eyes, and peaches and cream complexion . . . who could ask for anything more? Ruth is one of the "guarders of the radio dial" in the Smoker when it's tuned to hill-billy music.

BARBARA VAN DEVANTER

"Bobbie" Bethesda, Md.

"With woman the heart argues not the mind."

Class vice-president 1; Castellan 1,2; Samadra 2; Home Ec Club 1; French Club 1,2; Basketball varsity 1,2; A.A. Board 2; Council 1, secretary 2; Orientation 2.

With her blond hair, blue eyes, and big smile, Bobbie is the all-American type gal. In more ways than one, in joke and fun, she's shown what a good sport a gal can be.

DIANA LEE JOHNSON

"Diana Lee" Treasurer
Lexington Park, Md.

"Variety is the spice of life."

Class treasurer 1; Cheerleader 1, captain 2; Choir 1,2; Samadra 1; Home Ec Club 1,2; Orientation 2; J.V. softball 1.

Tres petite! All nice things come in little packages, and she sure makes a cute one. Diana Lee's vim and vigor will be remembered cheering the team on to victory.

MARLENE BRUBACKER

"Molly"

Leonardtown, Md.

"I'll find a way or make it."

A.A. Board 2; Varsity hockey 2; Varsity basketball 2.

A sweet temperament makes Molly a true pal to everyone. When she's around words fly a mile a minute. She is frequently found furnishing her room with new ideas.

JEANETTE CHASE

"Chase"

Lexington Park, Md.

"Eat, drink, and be merry."

Class president 1; A.A. Board 2; Castellan 2; Cheerleader 1,2; Home Ec Club 1,2; Samadra 1, treasurer 2; Student Council 2; French Club 1; Orientation 2.

A very dependable gal is Chase, our "Old Faithful Stand-by," as long as the Seminary has been lucky enough to have her. She is usually found stewing over last minute details.

DORIS CLOUGH

"Sunshine"

Price, Md.

"Life is surely for pleasure and folly."

Varsity hockey 2; Varsity basketball 2; A.A. Board 2; Choir 2.

Sunshine brought us a warm smile from the Eastern Shore. She can cut a neat rug as well as a neat figure on the basketball court.

"Peggy"

MARGARET CHILDS

Millersville, Md.

"Bravery never gets out of fashion."

Current Events Club 2; French Club 1,2; Samadra 1,2; Home Ec Club 1.

Solemn eyes and very innocent composure make up Peggy. She's repeatedly seen acting devilish and giving others a "kick" out of life.

"Ginny"

VIRGINIA DAVIS

Westwood, Md.

"Kind words are of great value, are very gratifying, cost little."

Home Ec Club, vice president 2; Varsity basketball 2; Castellan 2.

When Ginny says she'll do something, you can relax and feel assured there will be a job well done. Under quiet exterior there are bushels of sympathetic understanding and helpfulness.

"Winnie"

WINNEFRED DAVIS

N.A.A. Patuxent River, Md.

"Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Brown hair, hazel eyes that twinkle all the time, and a precious figure denote our Winnie. Her unpredictable personality gives all of us a treat.

CORNELIA DIXON
 "Cornie" N.A.S. Patuxent River, Md.
 "Laugh and be well."

Class secretary 1; Home Ec Club 1,2; French Club 1,2; Samadra 2; Choir 1,2; Orientation 2.

A contagious laugh and a ready wit are Cornie. Don't ever mention the word "ARMY" around this gal who is loyal to the Navy in a true "Navy Jr." fashion.

CHRISTINE FRAZER
 "Chris" Elkton, Md.
 "Simplicity of character is no hinderance to subtilty of intellect."
 Choir 2; Art Club 2.

Chris takes life in hand with a happy-go-lucky philosophy. Name or hum a tune and this gal will play a snap original arrangement on the piano for you. Just ask her the latest hit tunes!

BARBARA ANN JARBOE
 "Jarboe" Mechanicsville, Md.

"Never do today what you can put off till tomorrow."

Samadra 2; Choir 2; Art Club 2; Home Ec Club 2.

Jarboe has a genuine Southern Maryland drawl if there ever was one! This is one gal who has enough enthusiasm for all of us. She spends a part of each day rummaging around in her room looking for things.

"Joan"

JOAN LEAGER

St. Indigoes, Md.

"Hope and be happy that all's for the best."

Varsity hockey 2.

Joan has light brown hair, brown eyes and a sweet way of saying things. Look for her in the typing room, or watch her rush into class after lunch.

"Lewie"

CAROLYN LEWIS

Oakland, Md.

"If music be the fruit of love, play on."

Choir 1, 2; French Club 2.

Known for her intelligence and personality, Carolyn's "quite the girl." She has that "stick-to-it-ness" that is the key-note to success.

"Anne"

ANNE MITCHELL

Aberdeen, Md.

"Boot, saddle, to horse and away."

Home Ec Club 2.

That out-of-doors look characterizes our horsewoman. Her room is decorated with numerous ribbons she has won as a horsewoman. She loves the horses and the horses love her.

"Mary Clare"

MARY CLARE TURNER

Aquasco, Md.

"Silence – more musical than song."

Basketball varsity 1,2; Council 1,2; Court 2; French Club 1,2; Choir 1; Samadra 1,2.

She possesses the prize winning posture of S.M.S. Her gracefulness on the dance floor will catch anyone's eye. To quote: "She's a doll."

"Ann"

ANN WENNER

Brunswick, Md.

"If folly grow romantic, I must paint it."

Orientation 2; Art Club, president 2; French Club 2; Home Ec Club 1,2; A.A. Board 2; Choir 1; Samadra 1, custodian 2; May Court 1; Cheerleader 2; Castellan Art Editor 2; Apple Blossom representative 2.

Here's Ann with her stunning hair style, and ability to gab. She is quite the artist and has walked away with some prizes in art contests. She has livened up some of our parties with an original tap dance for us.

"Sally"

SARAH MOYER

Chestertown, Md.

"Be silent and safe – silence never betrays you."

A quiet and sweet personality characterize Sally. She is not classified as a book worm by all means, but she and the best novels are usually found together in the Smoker.

ear Incoming Sophs:

We arrived at D. M. S. slightly quenched from hard grass. After a hearty welcome from Triulation Committee we settled down work and elected capable class officers.
Then Gail Bowen and Mickey Gardner left their positions were filled by Bobbie Van Wanter and Cornelia Dixon. Three of our number became spirited cheerleaders: Don Chase, Deane Lee Johnson, and Jane Clough. Our dramatic ability was revealed in the Fall play by Mickey Gardner, Gail Bowen and Ann Glenner. Our Christmas play won first prize. May Day found us represented by Ann Glenner, very charming in yellow tulle. Bobbie Van Elewante and Cornelia Dixon were two very successful young ladies at graduation when they received in the Fall of '51, to bring us our number up to nineteen.

Each year we were represented on the
A. A. Board, Council, cheerleaders and Varsities by many of our members whom you will read about in their various biographies. Early in December we joined forces with the Seniors to produce the Senior Sophomore Program, which was perhaps the biggest sell-ever of our two years at the Seminary.
In closing, we the Sophomore Class of '53 our dramatic and athletic ability, class loyalty, and our sincere appreciation of D. M. S.
